A NOTE FROM DEAN

Good morning, Church!

A few weeks ago, The Ridge Tones went into the community to share some music with a few of the surrounding retirement homes, independent living centers, and memory care homes. In total, we went to four different places and had a great time singing for everyone who was able to come listen to us.

It is now time to prepare for Christmas! The annual Ridge Tones Christmas concert will be on Wednesday, December 19th, at 7:00 p.m., here at Pleasant Ridge. This is a great time for you to bring your family and friends and just enjoy an evening of Christmas music and holiday cheer! This year, we will be putting on an extra special presentation in the Atrium where we will also have hot beverages, cookies, and more to enjoy while listening to the Ridge Tones entertain you.

Rehearsals for the Christmas concert will begin on Tuesday, October 9th and will run every Tuesday evening from 7-8:30 in the NW wing. We are in need of more singers, especially “a few good men,” and would be thrilled to add anyone who wants to be a part of this fun, special group of singers. If you are interested, either come check us out, or contact Dean Willis for more information.

Blessings!
