Tri-C FriendSpeak Impact

We have some wonderful people participating in the FriendSpeak program at the Tri-C. I was sad that I had not seen a few readers for a couple of weeks so I sent out an email to connect with them. I received a heartwarming email reply from my friend Ann from South Korea. Below is her response.

Hi~~
Thank you so much for sending me e-mail.
I'm good. Everything is perfect except the Tri-C.
I miss Tri-C a lot. Tri-C is my favorite places in Arlington. I really want to see you and volunteers again soon.
As you know I've been taking care of my daughter during the summer vacation. So, I couldn't make Tri-C.

When I studied BIBLE at Tri-C, I was touched. And I thought there are so many secret of human life in the BIBLE. It was so interesting. BIBLE makes me think and viewpoint of world changed.
So, I'm trying to read more BIBLE by myself at my home.
Please Pray for me to keep going to read BIBLE.
I am reading a Psalm because Jungsuk (another reader) told me Psalm is very good.
I want to share below a verse ; I read this yesterday. Psalm 5:8 [LORD, Show me your right way of living, and make it easy for me to follow.]

Through her broken English, Ann sent a beautiful message. Please pray for faith to grow for Ann and the other readers as they are exposed to God's Word at the Tri-C.
