Celebrating Tri-C Volunteers

Recently the students of the Tri-C at UTA hosted a dinner to honor the many volunteers who give of themselves to serve with us. It was a wonderful night of good food, fun games, and great conversation. Every year more than 100 people volunteer to work with us serving the UTA campus. A simple dinner cannot convey our deep gratitude to our volunteers, but we hope it blesses them and lets them know that we see them. God's work at the Tri-C couldn't happen without each and every one.

In the gospel of John, Jesus said, "There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends." This is what you do when you help feed the hungry or share the Good News with those who don't know it. Whether you are serving in the front lines of the spiritual battle or behind the lines, you are laying down your life for someone else. THANK YOU!
